OBJECTIVE

With great power comes with great responsibility, and I understand that perfectly, that's why you can always count on me, I'm very hard-working individual, and when I throw myself into a task I really like to stick to it until it's done. I'm also good at multi-tasking, and jumping around from task to task comes naturally to me. I would say that no feat is ever too large for me, and I would go to the ends of the world to accomplish what needs to be done.
